1st. A primary election is hereby called to be held in the several voting precincts of Lincoln county on Saturday, February 6th, 1909, between 6 A. M. and 4 P. M., for the purpose of nominating democratic candidates for the offices of county judge, county attorney, county clerk, sheriff, jailer, representative, assessor, school superintendent, magistrates of the several magisterial districts, constables, coroner and surveyor.

Every candidate who desires to have his name printed on the ballots to be used in said primary election shall on or before 12 o'clock midnight of the 22nd day of January, 1909, deposit with the treasurer of the committee the sum hereby fixed as the entrance fee in the race for the office for which he is a candidate, said sum so realized to be used in defraying the expenses of the primary. At the same time the candidate shall give written notice to the chairman that he desires to be a candidate, and name the office he seeks.

The entrance fee of candidates shall be as follows: For sheriff, $40; for county judge, $10; for county attorney, $10; for county clerk, $10; for jailer, $15; for assessor, $10; for representative, $10; for school superintendent, $10; circuit clerk, $10.

President Helps Orphans.

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the President of The Industrial and Orphan's Home at Macon, Ga., who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this institution for nine years. It has proved a most excellent medicine for Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. We regard it as one of the best family medicines on earth." It invigorates the vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion, creates appetite. To strengthen and build up thin, pale, weak children or run-down people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

To The Democrats of Lincoln County.

A short time ago I made formal announcement of my candidacy for the democratic nomination for jailer of Lincoln county. The knowledge that men desire to know more of a candidate than may be gathered from the card of announcement, prompts me to me to make this public statement. My entire life has been spent in this county, so that it is useless to suggest the sources of information concerning my standing as a citizen.

This race is for the nomination of the democratic party, however, it may be proper to refer to my political life that you may know how well I may claim to be a member of that party. Since I was 19 years old my unhesitating allegiance has been given to the democratic party, though my earliest service was rendered at a time when minority prevented my casting a vote. In every contest that has been waged since my first vote was cast I have both voted and done whatever was within my power to assist in the election of the democratic ticket. Though taking no conspicuous part in these contests, I have nevertheless, given the best energies I possessed to the cause, and none can say that I have ever faltered in my allegiance to my party.

Within the past 12 years three campaigns have attracted special notice because marked by dissensions within the ranks that resulted in the withdrawal of many democrats from the party. I refer to the campaigns of 1896, 1900 and 1904, still fresh in the memory of every voter. In 1896 I voted for Bryan, in 1900 for Bryan, in 1904 for Park-er and for Bryan in 1908. Not only this, but more was done that may serve to show that the distress of the democratic party has never found me indifferent. I do not mention these facts boastfully for I conceive it to be the duty of every man who claims to be a democrat to support the nominees of his party. My only object is to indicate that I have allowed nothing to detract from my loyalty to the party, whose nomination I now ask.

Three years ago last November I was elected assessor of Lincoln county and since that date have been actively engaged in the duties of my office.

The records of the assessor's office are public, open to inspection at all times and I invite the closest scrutiny of the office by those who wish to know in what manner I have served the people of this county as an officer. Doubtless I have made mistakes, but I doubt if any one will charge that they have been either many or gross, and it has never been intimated that they have been the result of either inefficiency or neglect.

A candidate for public office can in no way make better proof of his fitness than by an honest and efficient service in the public stations he may have occupied in the past. I make no claim to signal accomplishments in the office I hold, yet I am willing to have my record examined and to submit to whatever judgment may result.

If nominated I shall do all in my power to secure the election of the ticket as well as myself, and if elected I shall endeavor to render the full measure of service required of the office.

To those who shall see proper to give me their support I shall be deeply grateful. Very Respectfully,

W. A. CARSON.

A Religious Author's Statement.

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last Winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. New Stanford Drug Co.

NEWS NOTES.

George B. Salender, Sr., aged 66, died suddenly at Frankfort.

Beach Hargis was fined $96 and given 20 days in jail for his rampage at Jackson.

William Douglas was shot and killed by Arthur McPherson in a blind tiger near Jackson.

Dr. A. J. Beale, ex-Confederate and first mayor of Oklahoma City, Okla., is dead at Cynthia.

Judge Matt Walton, of Lexington, was appointed by Gov. Willson a special Judge in the Polaski Circuit Court to try cases during the absence of the regular judge for the next six days.

Four men lost their lives and a number of others had narrow escapes when the steamer Samuel, in charge of Pilot Hogland, crashed into a log raft in a heavy fog near Rockport on Green river.

Banker Griffiths, of Walton, has sued O. M. Rogers and B. F. Graziana, a couple of Kenton county lawyers, for $25,000, because they brought suit against him for divorce, when they knew that his wife was insane.

Typhoid fever has broken out at Messina and physicians at Rome fear that an epidemic will get a start that will carry the disease beyond the stricken district. Some reports say that the disease is dysentery, which is regarded as equally as dangerous as typhoid fever.

A dispatch from Greensburg says E. E. Perkins has resigned as Sheriff of Green county because of the decision of the United States Supreme Court, making Green county liable for $250,000 worth of bonds voted to aid in the construction of the Cumberland and Ohio Railroad in 1871.

Another attempt to liberate Harry Thaw from the insane asylum at Matteawan was made. Counsel obtained from Justice Tompkins, of the New York supreme court, a writ of habeas corpus compelling the asylum authorities to produce Thaw before that justice at Nyack Saturday.

In 24 hours after being released from jail, at Irvine, on bond, Beach Hargis, recently tried at that place for the murder of his father, proceeded to his home at Jackson, and made things lively. It is alleged he got drunk and shot up the town. He was arrested after an all-night and day debauch and placed in jail.

Four prominent young men of Louisville—Howard Bellows, Norvin Green, Fred S. Breyfogle and J. E. Kemp, and Miss Mary Boswell, a member of Lexington's social set, had a narrow escape from death when the automobile in which they were riding plunged over a Kentucky-river cliff at Clay's Ferry. No fatal injuries were received by any of the five.

Sensational evidence developed in the investigation of the killing of Mrs. Annie Major in Garrard. Her brother, Andrew Broughton, and husband, Chas. Major, were both arrested and placed in jail on warrants charging them with the killing. Major claims Broughton killed Mrs. Major in an attempt to assassinate him and Broughton claims that Major killed Mrs. Major. Mrs. Major was killed last Thursday night while acting as hostess at a family reunion at her home at Buena Vista.

A Horrible Hold-Up.

"About ten years ago my brother was 'held up' in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless Consumption," writes W. R. Lipscomb, of Washington, N. C. "He took all kinds of remedies and treatment from several doctors, but found no help till he used Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles. He is a well man to-day." It's quick to relieve and the surest cure for weak or sore lungs, Hemorrhages, Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, La Grippe, Asthma and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

On account of his active fight against "bootleggers" and "blind tigers," City Attorney W. H. Haney at a mass meeting of citizens, was voted the most popular man in Corbin and a banquet will be given in his honor January 12.

If you will take Foley's Orino Laxative until the bowels become regular you will not have to take purgatives constantly, as Foley's Orino Laxative positively cures chronic constipation and sluggish liver. Pleasant to take. New Stanford Drug Co.

The $20,240,000 fine case of the Standard Oil Company will not be reviewed by the Supreme Court of the United States. The decision of the court to this effect was announced by Chief Justice Fuller.

MIDDLEBURG.

The Spring term of Middleburg Normal College opened Tuesday with a fairly good attendance. A. E. Wesley has charge of the intermediate grades and Miss Bessie Lee the primary.

The meeting at the Methodist church, which has been in progress for some two weeks, will likely continue for several days. Rev. J. L. Owens will preach his first discourse as pastor of the Baptist church Sunday.

Warrants have been issued for Rol Black and David Clark, charging them with disturbing a singing school at Calvary church, four miles south of Yosemite, and they will be tried Saturday. It is claimed that the boys got on a "whip" and going to the church, greatly disturbed the teacher and his class.

It is said that timber men and others working in the woods in this county, have ceased operations until after the republican primary Jan. 16. Candidates were so thick that there was danger of felling trees on them. In some localities it is said that the dogs have ceased to bark at them they have become so common.

Hart Coffey is a candidate for the republican nomination for constable in this district. Hart has been weather prophet for the Yosemite people for a number of years, but his predictions were so much at fault that he became disgusted and has concluded to try politics for awhile. Mr. Coffey is one of the best of fellows and will doubtless get the plum for which he is reaching.

Rev. J. S. Taylor filled Rev. Hunt's pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday and preached a most interesting sermon. He dwelt at length on the subject of sanctification and it seemed to us that his remarks ought to set at rest the new idea of the subject as taught by some. Uncle Josh, as he is familiarly known, preaches Bible sanctification but does not hold to the new theory a "little bit." His discourse was interesting and was accorded the best of attention.

Miss Bessie Winfrey and little sister, Linnie, were here Sunday with Miss Bessie Lee. Q. R. Jones is at Liberty this week doing duty as supervisor. Rando Brown, of Liberty, was here Monday. Herbert Jones cashier of the Wartburg, Tenn., bank, joined his wife here Saturday. Mrs. Jones has been visiting her parents at Dunnville. J. P. Wilkerson was here Monday on business. Robert Allen, of Boyle, this county, came up Monday and brought his daughter, who has entered school here.

Evangelist Herr's Remarkable Service.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL republishes herewith from the Kentucky State Journal a contribution by Rev. Joseph Severance, chaplain of the Frankfort penitentiary:

One of the most remarkable meetings in the annals of the prison was held in the chapel of the penitentiary Sunday morning. George T. Herr, of Louisville, a friend of Chaplain Severance, was present and spoke from the fourth and 12th chapters of the 103rd Psalm. The sermon was a strong appeal to the men for gratitude to God for the rich provision made for the redemption of the race and urging them to accept of the mercy of God and allow Him to remove their sins from them "as far as the East is from the West." The chapel was crowded to the doors and during the sermon that lasted an hour no one moved and none went out.

At the close of the sermon the gospel invitation was given and a total of 52 men came forward, some to confess faith in Christ, (of these there were 37) and others to renew their vows. Hundreds asked for prayer in their behalf. Among those who came were some of the hardest men in the prison and more noted for insubordination and disobedience than for piety and morality.

But the chaplain believes that the per cent. of those who remain true is as great among prisoners as among those outside.

Bro. Herr knows the prison work as few men do. He is a man of large sympathy and having had an experience of 15 years as an evangelist, knows how to reach the hearts of the men. He has the entire confidence of both prisoners and officials and is always given a most hearty welcome by all.

The baptism of the 37 men who made confessions Sunday will be attended to next Sunday morning. Mr. Herr will return for the baptism.

JOS. SEVERANCE, chaplain.
